

ad 11506/1895/

FOREIGN OFFICE,

October 31st, 1895.

Sir:-

Her Majesty's Government have carefully considered Baron Goltstein's note of the 10th of May last, on the subject of the new Extradition Treaty between Great Britain and the Netherlands; and I have now the honour to transmit to you the accompanying revised Draft of the Treaty, and to call your attention to the following alterations, which have been made in it since it was sent to Baron Goltstein in Draft form, on the 5th of February last.

Article II. No.7. The word "and" has been substituted for "or", and the paragraph now stands as "embezzlement and larceny". The crime "verduis-tering" is the offence known to the English law as "embezzlement". Her Majesty's Government would, therefore, suggest that in the Dutch text of the Treaty

Baron Schimmelpenninck.
